Installation and Configuration

GET VIDEO UP-AND-RUNNING CORRECTLY THE FIRST TIME

Successful deployment of video is dependent on correct installation and configuration of the system. Incorrect installation and poor configuration leads to delayed video roll-out, unsuccessful projects and unhappy customers. TANDBERG Installation and Configuration Services provide the customer with the right solution, resulting in successful video calls from day one.

SOLUTION

TANDBERG's Installation and Configuration Service ensures that TANDBERG equipment is up-and-running correctly the first time. Through this service, organizations have access to the best TANDBERG experts who can rapidly install and configure all that is needed for a successful video call. TANDBERG experts will also ensure that knowledge is transferred to organizational technicians to ensure quality of services continuity even when our experts leave the site.
